

The Silent Tongue.

The art of silence, if it be not of the new, is an art attained by few. How seldom do we meet with a man who speaks only what he ought to say? That the Bible enjoins its attainment is most manifest.

It commands us to make a door and a bar for the mouth. It declares that if a man bridles not his tongue, his religion is vain. The attainment of this art will enable us to avoid saying foolish things. We often speak without reflection, and, of consequence, foolish thoughts, or expressions destitute of thought, are uttered. Possessed of the art of silence, we shall not speak that which ought not to be spoken. Again it will enable us to avoid saying hurtful things.

Since we are placed in the world to do good, and since the endowment of speech is one of our greatest means of influence, it is most unseemly for us to utter that which shall do injury. He whose business it is to root out the tares should not scatter their seed. It will enable us to govern our feelings and direct our trains of thought. He who gives expression to his feelings increases their strength.

He who gives expression to anger, for example, increases its power over him. He who gives utterance to improper thoughts will increase their number. It will increase our influence with our fellowmen. "A fool uttereth all his mind; a wise man keepeth it until afterward." Gravity and reserve are associated with wisdom. Even an affected gravity is sometimes effective—the true art of silence is always. We can be useful only as we are influential.

A SHORT WAY TO ALL EVILS.—We cut the following from a paper published many years ago, but it is just as applicable to day as when first published:

If you wish to be always thirsty, be a drunkard; for the oftener and more you drink, the oftener and more thirsty you will be.

If you seek to prevent your friends raising you in the world, be a drunkard; for that of itself will defeat all their efforts.

If you are determined to be poor, be a drunkard; you will soon be ragged and penniless.

If you wish to starve your family to a drunkard, for that will consume their means. If you would be imposed upon by knaves, be a drunkard, for that will make their task easy.

If you are resolved to kill yourself, be a drunkard, that being a sure mode of destruction.

If you have no resources when past labor but a workhouse, be a drunkard, and you will be unable to provide any.

If you are determined to expel all comfort from home, be a drunkard and you will do it most effectually.

1866. 1866.

THE DEMOCRAT.

Read This, and Hand It to Your Neighbor Who Don't Take the Paper.

Now that the time has arrived for everybody to determine what paper or papers he will take during the coming year, and scores of "good, bad and indifferent" ones from abroad are sending their high-sounding prospectuses into every nook and corner of our County, we beg leave to call the attention of the people of Old Geauga to the merits and advantages of the Jeffersonian Democrat. We have always held that every man should take his own County paper because it is such; but we are happy to say there are other reasons why every citizen of Geauga County should take his County paper. At the commencement of the new volume, it will be so much enlarged as to contain more matter than ever before, although the terms, which are as low as those of city weeklies in general, will remain the same as at present, viz.: $2 per year in advance. As there is no postage on it in the County, it will be afforded to our citizens at twenty cents per year less than foreign papers of the same nominal price. It will contain all the home news of general interest, and a full weekly summary of the events of the State and Nation, gleaned from other papers. In the Home Department, which is the life of every well-conducted County paper, we have already several intelligent and reliable correspondents, and intend, if possible, to engage one in every Township in the County. In addition to these, we earnestly solicit every person who may have any local news of interest, to communicate it to us. Those who do not feel qualified to write for the press, need not hesitate on that account, as, whenever necessary or desirable, items will be given in our own language. Local controversies and personalities are, for obvious reasons, inadmissible; but local statistics and notices of public improvements, sales, deaths, meetings, accidents, removals, crops, storms, valuable stock, &c., &c., are always acceptable.

We also intend to change our time of publication, so that subscribers in several of the Townships will receive the paper with more regularity and in better season than heretofore, and in all as early as the day after publication. We hardly need say that the Democrat will continue to advocate the principles of Freedom and Equality to which it has ever been devoted, and which we rejoice to believe have gloriously triumphed in the late War for the Union.

Now is the time to subscribe!

This Popular Rural Paper, published on the 1st and 15th of each month, at Utica, New York, at $1.50 a year, is now greatly enlarged and improved, and equal in size and value of contents to any other similar publication in this country. Indeed, no other paper of the kind can be compared with it in the real value and interest attached to its contents; and it is decidedly ahead of anything of the kind ever published.

The Rural American is not a Local Paper, but just as valuable in New England, the Western and other States, as in the State of New York. Its circulation is larger than that of any other paper out of the City of New York. Volume X will commence January 1st, 1866.

The Form is a very large SIXTEEN PAGE OCTAVO, containing double the reading matter that can be found in any other similar publication on every subject of interest to farmers, fruit-growers, grape-growers in particular, stock-raisers, gardeners, bee-keepers, poultry-breeders, &c.

This Elegant Paper is illustrated with some of the most costly ENGRAVINGS that money and art can produce; and its LITERARY Department embraces general FAMILY Reading, which in interest has never been equaled in this country. In brief, the Rural American is now universally admitted to be the most PRACTICAL and RELIABLE Agricultural and Horticultural Publication extant. Every Subscriber receives the full value of the paper in Choice Grape Vines, Strawberry Plants or Fine Engravings, worth $2 each; and all subscribers for 1866 who remit their money before Dec. 15th receive the volume for 1866 FREE FROM THE TIME THEY SUBSCRIBE to the close of the present year!

The Agricultural Editor of the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, (an entire stranger), in congratulating me on the appearance of my new paper, writes: "My opinion is that you have issued the best journal—all points considered—for the practical, working farmer, that we have ever had in the United States or anywhere else. I like its general make-up better than that of any paper I have ever seen." These are my honest sentiments.

Merchants' Insurance Company, HARTFORD, CONN.

[From the Hartford Independent.] Among the INSURANCE COMPANIES which had Policies upon the Washington Fire, was the MERCHANTS' of Hartford, Conn., and the way it takes care of its customers is shown by the following:

HARTFORD, May 27th, 1865. J. S. REED, State Agent. Loss at Wellington, Ohio. Examine, and if found all right, pay at once.

E. T. LOBDELL, Secretary. WELLINGTON, June 2d, 1865. Record of the MERCHANTS' INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Conn., per J. S. REED, State Agent, Two Thousand Dollars, in full for Policy of same amount on our Store and Warehouse, destroyed by fire. A Company that so fairly and promptly meets its losses, deserves general patronage.

STARR, FOOTE & CO. We see frequent mention made of the "MERCHANTS' INSURANCE COMPANY," and it is always spoken of as a Company which, after being satisfied that a loss is fair and square, pays at once, without useless red tape. In this County the MERCHANTS' is the popular Company. Its losses here, as at Toledo, Elvira, Lima, Wellington, and other places, have been fairly and honestly adjusted, and also promptly paid. Our Farmers and business men prefer the honest, frank, fair policies of the MERCHANTS', and they look to them as guaranties against loss and damage by fire. The receipts of the MERCHANTS', as returned to our County Auditor for taxation, are largely in excess of those of any other Company doing business at this place. Its Surplus or Reserved Fund is greater in proportion to Capital, than that of any other Hartford Company.

Mr. J. S. REED, the State Agent, has been doing business in this place, as Merchant and Banker for over Twenty-five years. Parties desiring Insurance, then, can find in the MERCHANTS' INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, reliable guaranties against loss by fire, and, if they will consider character as shown by its prompt payments, responsibility as shown by its large Surplus reserved for extra losses, amounting at this time to about one hundred per cent. upon Capital; convenience in the settlement of losses, in having them adjusted and paid by an old citizen of known responsibility, whose connection with the Company as State Agent is sufficient guaranty of its respectability and responsibility; they will effect the Insurance with the "MERCHANTS' INSURANCE COMPANY," of Hartford.

Rates as Low as those of any responsible company. E. V. CANFIELD, Agent, 808m6 Chardon, Ohio.

NOTICE. In Com. Pleas Court, Geauga County, Ohio. Partition. LORINDA BLACK, George Black, Harriet L. Colvin, widow of Milan Colvin, Martha A. Said petition also prays that the power of Harriet Colvin, widow of Milan Colvin, in two-tenths of said land, may be set off in said premises. Said petition will be for hearing at the next term of said Court.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WM. WEIGHTMAN, (Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.)

From the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, March 10th. We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of its articles. Our Farmers and business men in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The Proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are GENUINE PREPARATIONS. And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using anything pertaining to Quackery or the Patent Medicine order—most of whom are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's prescriptions, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

THESE PARTIES RESORT to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies, and finishing with certificates.

The Science of Medicine stands SIMPLE, PURE and MAJESTIC, having Facts for its Basis, Induction for its Pillar, Truth alone for its Capital.

A WORD OF CAUTION. Health is most important, and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known, or others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

DR. SEELYE'S LIQUID CATARRH REMEDY CURE Warranted

IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED. CALL FOR A CIRCULAR DESCRIBING ALL SYMPTOMS.

SYMPTOMS. The Symptoms of Catarrh, as they generally appear, are at first very slight. Persons find that they have a cold; they have frequent attacks; and are nervous, sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acid, afterwards becoming thick and adhesive. As the disease assumes a chronic form, the discharges are increased in quantity, and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are often offensive and painful; the eyes are weak; the voice is thick and nasal; the breath; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed, and deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus which has fallen down from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal Symptoms. A Single Bottle will last a month—to be used three times a day.

Testimonial. From Hon. T. J. Turner, Ex-Member of Congress from Illinois, late Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives, and Grand Master of A. E. and A. M., of the State of Illinois. Freeport, Oct. 21, 1863.

DR. D. H. SEELYE. Dear Sir:—In reply to your notice of the 18th instant, I would say that I was severely afflicted with Catarrh for years when I became acquainted with you, and bought two bottles of your Liquid Catarrh Remedy. Before I had used one bottle I was sensibly improved, and before the second bottle was finished, was completely cured. I can recommend the medicine to all afflicted with Catarrh. Respectfully yours, THOS. J. TURNER.

Ayer's Pills. ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Hemorrhoids, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered. 826w8
